Please join us for the 2014 Annual Samuel Beckett Lecture

“A Different Side of Sam: Beckett, Arikha, and a Parisian Adolescence”

by

Alba Arikha

Author of acclaimed memoir Major/Minor

Ms. Arikha, a London-based poet, short story writer, translator, and teacher, recounts in Major/Minor her experiences growing up as the daughter of poet Anne Atik and famed Israeli artist Avigdor Arikha; and how Samuel Beckett—a close friend of her parents in Paris for 40 years—played a significant role in her formative years.
