Please join us for the 13th Annual
Samuel Beckett Lecture/Performance
Presented by
The Internationally-known Swedish director, actor, and Performance Artist
Jan Jönson

Tuesday, 14 November 2017
Room 206A, Mexico Building, Tel Aviv University
Reception 18:00; Performance 18:30

In the Presence of Irish Ambassador to Israel Alison Kelly

Mr. Jönson brings to Israel his acclaimed performance “Moments of Reality”, the fascinating story of his work directing Beckett’s Waiting for Godot with prisoners in maximum-security Kumla Prison, Sweden and San Quentin Prison, US. He movingly shows how the play spoke to the prisoners, helping them to find their own identities and their own language, through Beckett’s language.

With the support of The Embassy of Ireland, Culture Division, Irish Department of Foreign Affairs and the Theatre Studies Department, Tel Aviv University.

Pedestrian entrance to the University through Gate 8 (Bochner Gate, Levanon Street)
