

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Foreword | 9 |
| Introduction | 11 |
| Part I: Workshops | |
| 1 Workshops, Masters, and Mass-Sculpture | 23 |
| 1.1 Thann – Ulm – Augsburg: problems of dating and affiliation..... | 23 |
| 1.2 Workshop organization | 28 |
| 1.3 Workshops and mass-sculpture | 31 |
| 1.4 Reflections on Johann Parler and southwestern German workshops | 44 |
| 2 Thann and Italy: Visualizing Pilgrimage | 48 |
| 2.1 Italian and southwestern German sculpture: state of research | 48 |
| 2.2 Pisano and the Parler sculpture | 53 |
| 2.3 Lombardy and Thann: pilgrimage and Parler art | 57 |
| 2.4 Conclusions: visualizing pilgrimage | 65 |
| Part II: The Patron Hidden in the Narrative: Art Patronage and Politics | |
| 3 The Patron Hidden in the Narrative | 71 |
| 3.1 Thann between Pfirt and Habsburg | 72 |
| 4 Eve and Johanna: feminine identity and patronage | 74 |
| 4.1 New perception of the Genesis story..... | 74 |
| 4.2 Johanna von Pfirt and the church of Thann..... | 84 |
| 4.3 The syllogism between the First Couple, patrons, and founders | 91 |
| 4.4 Active patronage: the patron as narrator | 95 |
| 5 Rudolf's Journey: Art Patronage and Politics in Thann | 101 |
| 5.1 The Thann Journey | 101 |
| 5.2 The Magi in medieval political thought | 103 |
| 5.3 Rudolf's Italian politics | 106 |
| 5.4 The Thann Journey and medieval theatre | 109 |
| 5.5 Proclaiming royal legitimacy: Rudolf IV as a Magus..... | 111 |
| 5.6 Royal and ecclesiastic narratives..... | 115 |

| | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 6 | The Life of the Virgin Mary: an Ecclesiastic or Lay Iconography? | 118 |
| 6.1 | Iconographic ascription | 118 |
| 6.2 | The Plague and the Lady | 121 |
| 7 | The Crucifixion: Italian and Bohemian Crossroads | 133 |
| Conclusions: Narratives, Patrons, Dating | | 137 |
| Bibliography | | 139 |
| Photo credits | | 154 |
| Illustrations | | 155 |

Illustrations